THE CONSTITUTION OF THE THIRD AND FOURTH WARDS .- MR. MARCELLUS' WITHmous tirade against the Working-men's Association of these Wards, and thinking perhaps that it was the hasty, conclusion of we concluded not to publish it. I has since been forced upon the public, through tha columns of the Journal, preceded by one still more violent, and is intended to prejudice the good men of those Wards against the Association. We will show Mr. Marcellus that he misunderstands the clause of the constitution to which he objects. He says:

"I have mover liked political organisa tions, but especialty such as were preserip tive, hence my surprise when I found I had joined a party, which by one article of its constitution, proscribes any man who has hald office for six years," etc.

Now, we are certain there is no clause in the constitution of those Wards which reads, "who has held office for six years." There Baltimore for a few days, has adjourned was an amendment made to the original doc until the 12th of March, or until Virginia | mment on the night, we are told, on which secedes or takes action, when it shall be Mr. Marcellus jained, and before the ancalled together by the I'recident, to deter. rollment of names (when he became a mammine the conrec of Maryland. It is ber at his own suggestion), which reads, "who rumored at Washington that Gov. Hicks is has looked to office (that is, hunted, colicited) contemplating the convening of the Legis- for six years," and was intended to exclude lature of the State to supplant this move- tha same class of men for which the Asseoiations were instituted-low, corrupt, selfish partizans. The Association, at its pleasure, might, under this clause, keep good and true men in office for life. Yet we doubt Banner at the inauguration ceremonies of the National flag on the court-house, on the permanently. Rotation is the safest after of the Eastern District at the ensuing April election.

In another portion of his Journal article,

I deamed this a proper channel, since a portion of the paper has been sat apart as the channel for the intercommunication of their opinions and doings. But the articla was fixtly re-

This is a remarkable argument, when it is borne in mind that the organization is intended to embrace the "Mechanics, Working-men, Farmers, and Merchan's," and in fact every good citizen, who can, unlike Mr. Marcellus, lay down his partizon preferences and prejudices. If there are proportionately but few tollers in the Third | late District, to all the vacancy occusioned by the death and Fourth wards, it is to be supposed tha came difference will exist in the numbers enrolled. It is remarkable that that very clover gentleman, being himself a MERCHANT, should endeavor to create a prejudice against his own class, and still more remarkable that, being a merchant, he should eign himself "Working-man," with the interpre-217 POURTE STREET, DETWEEN MARKET AND tation he puts to that compound.
